

Ship From Outer Space

When police in Halifax, Mass., responded to a call that a "space ship" had been sighted, they found this strange craft. It was built by earthling William A. Ellis Jr. for the amusement of his children. The 60-foot capsule is built on a truck chassis and passengers inside hear an engine roar and see stars and the earth simulated on windows. —A. P. Wirephoto

St. Louis Globe-Democrat

(circa 1965)